

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents and Caregivers

Over that past few weeks we were delighted to have four new students enrol at our school. A MONSTROUSLY HUGE WELCOME TO Tayla, Brady, Kyeisha and Blair. We are very confident that they will fit well into our school culture and be wonderful ambassadors for our school.

There is much excitement in the community surrounding the visit by Prince Harry, Duke of Sussex and Meghan, The Duchess of Sussex. It would be wonderful if our children had the opportunity to meet them but as yet we don't know their itinerary.

Regards

Principal

School Captain

During this week all of our students had the opportunity to elect a new girl school captain to replace Rikki-Ann Murray, our previous captain, who has moved away from Wongarbon.

Congratulations to our newly elected School Captain, Jessica Priddis. I am very confident that Jessica will make an excellent, responsible and proactive school leader.

Don't forget to keep selling those Freddo and Friends throughout the holidays to raise money for our

A Sign of the Times

Yeeha! With some excellent cooperation and support from Shane (Illusion Signs) we now finally have a functional electronic school sign.

Shane has been very thorough in training staff in operating the sign and very practical in working around us to create minimal interruption when completing all electronic and data cabling.

We thank him for being very reliable and consistent with his timeline of installation. HAPPY DAYS!

Thank you

Thank you to Jacqui Riley for your amazing delivery this week of vegetable seedlings for our school vegetable garden. We certainly do appreciate Jacqui's ongoing support of the kitchen and food garden projects in our school. These gardens are a terrific way to promote environmental and sustainability learning and connect students with healthy food and lifestyles.
