

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents and Caregivers

The NSW Primary Principals' Association State Conference which I attended last week was very engaging with many high profile speakers focusing on the future in terms of not only education but society and the future world that our children will be experiencing.

Technology and Artificial Intelligence were a major part of the commentary but also the need to escape technology or have technology down time for personal wellbeing, social interaction and creating a productive, prosperous and safe society.

A common theme was that to secure jobs in the future students will need to be creative thinkers, problem solvers, be skilful communicators, be able to work in a collaborative environment, open to rapid change and be resilient. Artificial Intelligence will significantly improve people's lifestyles, safety, health and world food production and distribution.

Many existing jobs that we take for granted will disappear and many more, yet unheard of jobs, created. The one constant will be change, rapid change, as technology and Artificial Intelligence develop, become more commonplace and affordable.

JUST A THOUGHT:

Why limit happy to an hour?

Eg your surgeon may well be a robot, driverless cars (no more Ube, you ask your car to come and get you), research lawyers will be replaced by Artificial Intelligence research technology. And so it goes on.

There certainly will be interesting times and challenges ahead.

It is so appropriate that our school vision statement includes the creation of life long learners.

Regards

Principal
